DIVISION MEMORANDUM
No. 297, s. 2020

DEPED BOHOL TAMBAG (TAnan MAY BILI, ATONG GIYAHAN) HOTLINE

TO: Public Schools District Supervisors
Secondary and Elementary School Heads
All Other Concerned

1. The Department of Education – Bohol Division is always mindful on its provision of our Basic Education Learning Continuity Plan (BE-LCP) in this time of COVID -19 pandemic where DepEd places priority on the protection and promotion of the mental health and general welfare of all learners and personnel.

2. As provided in DepEd Order Number 14 s, 2020 (GUIDELINES ON THE REQUIRED HEALTH STANDARDS IN BASIC EDUCATION OFFICES AND SCHOOLS) calls for the establishment of counseling services through a hotline platform in the Schools Division Office.

3. To response to the above-mentioned need, DepEd Bohol TaMBAG (TAnan May Bili, Atong Giyahan) Hotline is now open with the following Registered Guidance Counselors composing the team:

4. For order and protocol of this counseling hotline, consideration on the following points is important:
    - Clients could choose freely among the four counselors whom they would want to counsel them.
    - Do consider also the time schedule of the counselors included in this memorandum.
    - In moments where the chosen counselor is not available, a client would be referred to among the other counselors.
    - Students as clients would be entertained through referral from the school guidance counselor/designate, teachers or other school personnel. This is to prevents pranks and other unnecessary business in the platform.

5. Widest dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
