Dear Superintendent Dagatan,

Greetings of Peace!

Action Against Hunger is a global humanitarian organization that takes decisive action against the causes and effects of hunger.

In Bohol, Action Against Hunger is currently implementing the project, "Immediate and Comprehensive Response for Communities Affected by Typhoon Rai in the Philippines." This is an ECHO funded project for 12 municipalities that aimed to meet the urgent multi-sectoral humanitarian needs of the most vulnerable population living in disadvantaged and remote areas that includes Food, Security and Livelihood (FSL), Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH), Shelter, Health, Protection, and Education in Emergencies (EiE). Part of the activities are capacity building and mapping of needs.

In the abovementioned regard, I would like to invite you, our 15 District Supervisors, 30 School Heads from Action Against Hunger Target School Beneficiaries and 2 Resource Speakers to be part of the training mentioned below:

Activity	Target Date	Expected participants	Venue
