SUBJECT : GIRL SCOUT WEEK CELEBRATION 2015

DATE : SEPTEMBER 4, 2015

The month of September of every year is a significant month for Girl Scouting as we celebrate the Girl Scout Week that embraces the birth anniversary of our Founder, Josefa Llanes Escoda.

The weeklong celebration falls on September 14-20 and focuses on the theme “Connect, Protect and Respect”.

The Girl Scouts of the Philippines recognizes the importance of the internet in our lives, and also the vast opportunities it offers to our members. This is one way of bringing the Movement closer together and enabling girls and young women to connect together, to share information, and to advocate on issues that are important to them in their communities, country and the world. And it is more important to ensure that our members can continue to use the internet safely, connect positively with others online and respect their own rights and reputation in the digital world.

This is certainly the most special time of the year which calls for equally special activities that may properly showcase the year round program of the Movement as a whole.

Hereunder are the daily sub-themes and the suggested activities for this weeklong celebration:
