2. The identified sample schools for ELLNA, NAT 6 and NAT 10 are listed in the attachment of this memorandum.
3. Test examiners for ELLNA should come from other public elementary schools within the district determined by the District Supervisors prior to the conduct of the test.
4. For NAT 6 and NAT 10, school heads of the sampled schools could request and arrange examiners from the neighboring high schools, with the coordination of the District Supervisors. Private schools could arrange examiners from the nearest private high schools.
5. BEEA examiners would follow the same arrangement during the previous years of NAT and NCAE.
6. School heads/principals could claim the test materials at the division office on the day before the test and return the same materials on the day after the test.
7. Travelling and other incidental expenses during the conduct of the test by school heads/room examiners/supervisors of the public schools are chargeable against Division/School/Local/MOOE funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
8. Widest dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
