TO: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
Chiefs of SGOD and CID
Education Program Supervisors/ Education Program Specialists
Public Schools District Supervisors/ Acting PSDSs
School Heads/Principals/Head Teachers of Public Schools

1. As a matter of disaster preparedness for Tropical Depression "Vicky", the Regional Office issued Regional Memorandum 662, s. 2020 requiring all schools to strengthen/establish mitigating measures and monitoring of possible impact of TD Vicky to protect our education investment (properties, and essential records). The following are the suggested mitigating measures to be established to our schools, to wit:

- a) Establishment/ repair/ cleaning of drainage canal;
- b) Essential documents should be placed on the plastic box/ placed on top of the cabinet or high elevation that can not be easily reached by flood;
- c) Pruning of trees near to the classroom/building;
- d) Roofs should be tied by GI wire/rope or any materials that cannot be easily flown by strong winds;
- e) Schools must be ready if LGU cannot accommodate IDP's in their evacuation site; and
- f) Any method that can be employed to mitigate on the possible hazards.

2. All SHs/DRRMCs are requested to ensure the safety of our Learning Materials, equipment and must be keep updated on the weather info from PAGASA most especially flood and landslide prone areas.

3. Rapid Assessment Report (RADaR) 1 and 2, or Certificate of No Damage should be submitted within 72 hours after the hazards.

4.vvv For details and clarification, you may contact Mr. Ranilo Edar and Engr. Philp Marcelo Vigonte through their numbers: 09297941159 and 09435450584.
