1. The Scouting program has specific objectives, commonly referred to as the “Aims of Scouting.” They are character development, leadership development, citizenship training, and personal fitness. Leadership development is also one of Scouting’s eight methods contributing to both good character and good citizenship. (scouting+aims&rlz=1C1CHBD_enPH871PH872&oq). Part of Scouting programs is to engage boys and girl scouts with activities to enhance hidden talents from within. Thus, there is need for an avenue to let these young girls and boys to be provided with these activities.

CAGED BIRD

By Maya Angelou

A free bird leaps
on the back of the wind and floats downstream
till the current ends
and dips his wing
in the orange sun rays
and dares to claim the sky.

But a bird that stalks
down his narrow cage
can seldom see through his bars of rage
his wings are clipped and his feet are tied
so he opens his throat to sing.

The caged bird sings
with a fearful trill
of things unknown
but longed for still
and his tune is heard
on the distant hill
for the caged bird
sings of freedom.

The free bird thinks of another breeze and the trade winds soft through the sighing trees and the fat worms waiting on a dawn bright lawn and he names the sky his own

But a caged bird stands on the grave of dreams his shadow shouts on a nightmare scream his wings are clipped and his feet are tied
so he opens his throat to sing.

The caged bird sings
with a fearful trill
but longed for still
and his tune is heard
on the distant hill
for the caged bird
sings of freedom.
