SUBJECT : COMMUNITY WOMEN FOR COMMUNITY-BASED TROOP – AN ORIENTATION

DATE : FEBRUARY 05, 2022

One of the main thrusts of the Girl Scouts of the Philippines (GSP) for Triennium 2021-2024 is strengthening the Community-Based Troops (CBT) in the 96 GSP Councils. The target members of the CBT are the out-of-school youth, the ALS learners, the vulnerable, the marginalized, those in poverty situation and those young women who are working (shops, malls, househelps). Thus, orientations will be given to prospective Community-Based Troop Leaders/Co-Leaders.

In line with this, we are pleased to inform you that the Bohol Girl Scout Council was favorably selected as one of the two Councils for the pilot run of the “Community Women for Community-Based Troop – An Orientation”. This national level orientation will be spearheaded by the National Training Committee and Training Division, together with the National Membership Committee, Membership Division, National Program Committee and Program Division.

Hereunder are the details of said forthcoming digital orientation:
