23 September 2022

Dear Friends and Colleagues in CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT through EDUCATION!

Days from now, on 28 September 2022, Wednesday, at 9:30 a.m. through 11:45 a.m., the BOHOL ARTS AND CULTURAL HERITAGE COUNCIL Arts and Heritage Sections in cooperation with the Diocese of Tagbilaran, the National Museum Bohol Branch, and the Center for Culture and Arts Development (CCAD), will formally launch the 802-page book of Professor Emmanuel Luis “Luigi” A. Romanillos titled History of Bohol (1521-1937): Essays, Notes, and Sources at the Gallery 5, 2/F, National Museum of the Philippines - Bohol branch, of this City. This benchmark tome on Bohol history is published this year by the National Historical Commission of the Philippines (NHCP). The programme is herewith enclosed.

With all preparations for this activity in place, we now hasten to write you to cordially invite you to grace this very important community event. You are entitled to 5 GUESTS from DEP ED BOHOL to attend the program at 9:30 am. This is because of space restrictions at the Museum.

This four-decade work of Professor Romanillos comes at a time when stimulating issues in Philippine history and historiography come to light. The need for the reintroduction of Philippine history subjects in the curricula of some school levels, a passionate appreciation for primary sources and facts in history, and the essential necessity of knowing one’s past make Romanillos’ research an exemplar in advancing the historical sciences. The publication by the NHCP of the author’s book is so paramount that this present work is the reliable reference book on Bohol history and historiography.

The reading public will have the opportunity to meet and greet the author at the book signing during which copies of his work will be sold at ₱ 1,250.00 each.

In anticipating for your presence, on behalf of the BACH Council, we extend our thanks to you for the usual prompt attention and kind reply.

Sincerely yours,

Arch. GERMAN JANUS GUIDABEN, Heritage Section Head
LUTGARDO LABAD, Arts Section Head
Rev. Fr. MILAN TED TORRALBA, Chair, Diocesan Commission

Atty. FILIPINA ASOY-PIOLLO, OIC Head CCAD
