Dear Dr. Dagatan,

Greetings from Deaf Boholanos Society, Inc.!

Our organization composed of Deaf people from the province of Bohol. We cater to the different needs of Filipino Deaf. Among the said needs is education and literacy. We are writing to you to request your permission to allow us conduct reading activities to Deaf students in Tagbilaran City Elementary School, Talibon Central Elementary School, Loon Central Elementary School, Sagabayan Central Elementary School, and Jagna Central Elementary School.

This activity is in relation to our Sign Language Books in Action—Philippines (SLBA-PH) project—a prize bestowed to our organization. It is funded by World Vision, USAID, Australia Aid, and Global Book Alliance through the All Children Reading-Grand Challenge for Development or ACR-GCD (please refer to this site: <https://allchildrenreading.org/>).

Our activity aims to bring Sign Language Storybooks from Deaf World Around You (<https://deafworldaroundyou.org>) to more Deaf people especially the Filipino Deaf youth. We also aim to conduct reading activities for Deaf children in the hope of bolstering their literacy especially in Filipino Sign Language (FSL).

More details on this activity are detailed in the attached documents. Should you have questions, please do not hesitate to email us through our project coordinator michaeltirazonavea@gmail.com or send us SMS 0949-9949205.

We are looking forward to your endorsement and approval.

Respectfully Yours,

Michael T. Vea
Project Coordinator
SLBA-PH
