MEETING OF CONSULTATIVE ADVISORY BODY (CAB) AND SCHOOL HEAD OF SCHOOLS IMPLEMENTING IPED

1. This office informs you of the conduct of the meeting of Consultative Advisory Body (CAB) and School Heads. This activity stands as a cornerstone in the commitment to advancing indigenous education, preserving cultural heritage, and fostering sustainable development within indigenous communities. First lunch of first day. The purpose of this meeting is to facilitate collaboration, share insights, and address key matters crucial for the successful execution of the program. The activity will start in the afternoon on January 18, 2024, and end on January 19, 2024. The venue will be at Reynas Haven and Garden, New Calceta St., Tagbilaran City. First meal will be lunch in the first day.
2. The meeting will cover the following agenda items:
 - Program Evaluation: A comprehensive review of the IPED's progress, achievements, and challenges across participating schools.
 - Policy Updates: Discussion on any recent policy changes, updates, or guidelines related to the IPED, ensuring that all participating schools are aligned with the latest directives.
 - Community Engagement: Strategies and experiences related to engaging with indigenous communities, fostering partnerships, and enhancing community involvement in the educational process.
 - Capacity Building: Opportunities and initiatives for professional development, training, and capacity-building programs for educators and school administrators.
 - Resource Allocation: Allocation and utilization of resources, including funding, materials, and personnel, to enhance the effectiveness of the IPED.
 - Planning for the Future: Collaborative planning for the next academic year, setting goals, establishing priorities, and outlining a roadmap for continuous improvement.
