Dr. EVANGEL M. LUMINARIAS, CESO V
School Division Superintendent
DepEd Bohol
Tagbilaran City, Bohol

Dear Dr. Luminarias:

New Year greetings!

Established for over a century, the National Museum of the Philippines, guided by its vision of a nation unified in its common identity, continues to promote appreciation, preservation, protection, and dissemination of our cultural and natural inheritance. As one of the prime educational agencies in the country, we share the same mission with your institution to convey knowledge, polish skills, cultivate confidence, and nurture wisdom among the young generation of Filipinos.

The National Museum - Bohol, a component museum in the Visayas under the flagship of the National Museum of the Philippines humbly invites your academe or a department, to collaborate with us. The institution firmly believes that through partnerships, we can realize our goals— not only for our organizations but for those whose purpose we exist and serve. We are offering educational programs (such as museum internship, training, or immersion) to subjects or courses related to museum or academic work, as well as the hospitality industry.

Relative thereto, below is a list of requirements for internship application, viz:

1. Letter of Intent from the school/college/university official addressed to the Director for the Visayas National Museums, ATTY. MA. CECILIA U. TIROL, through the Chief Administrative Officer of the Human Resource Management Division Office, ANGELO S. MACARIO. The letter must include the following information/details:

Name of School/College/University
Course/Strand
Name of the Students
Required number of hours
Target internship schedule/duration of internship (please specify start and end)
Contact number of Coordinator
Email Address of the school and of the Coordinator

2. Attached to the letter of intent are the following documents:

Curriculum vitae of the students
Certificate of good moral character of each student
1x1 ID picture of each student
