2. This activity aims to formally turn- over the arts and sports supplies to the identified schools offering the Special Program in the Arts and Special Program in Sports. It is expected that after the turn-over ceremony, these materials/ supplies will be fully utilized during the delivery of the SPA and SPS Curricula. Prior to its utilization, the School Heads, Program Coordinators and Property Custodians must ensure the proper safe-keeping and maintain a record of its usage. A quarterly utilization report must be submitted to Dr. Ayson as part of the monitoring purposes.
3. The teacher-coach of Cangawa NHS is instructed to secure a Parental Consent for the learner-performers mentioned above. They shall also be given Self Learning Modules of all subject areas they will be missed to attend due to this turn- over activity.
4. Attached is the Program Flow for reference.
5. Transportation, incidental expenses shall be charged against the School MOOE Fund, while the foods and tarpaulin are charged to the SDO fund subject to the usual government accounting rules and regulations.
6. This memorandum also serves as a TRAVEL ORDER.
7. Immediate dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
