All Others Concerned:

1. To advance our shared commitment to sustainable education and environmental stewardship, the Bohol Island Geopark Orientation is scheduled to take place on January 9, 2024, at 1:00 p.m. This orientation aims to strengthen awareness of the Bohol Island Geopark's rich geological, cultural, and ecological heritage, which is integral to its designated as a UNESCO Global Geopark. By empowering education leaders, the initiative aspires to deepen community engagement and enhance educational integration of geopark-related content.
2. The objectives of the orientation are to:
 - provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the Bohol Island Geopark's significance and as designated UNESCO Global Geopark,
 - equip coordinators, school heads, and PSDS with the SDO Bohol's direction on Bohol Geopark's implementation, and
 - establish collaborative roles among schools in promoting conservation, cultural appreciation, and sustainability aligned with the geopark's goals.
3. Participants to this virtual orientation are the Public Schools District Supervisors (PSDS), Secondary School Heads and Designated School Geopark Coordinators of the following municipalities:

• Alicia • Anda • Baclayon • Candijay • Carmen 1	• Carmen 2 • Carmen 3 • Dauis • Inabanga North • Inabanga South	• Loon North • Loon South • Maribojoc • Trinidad 1 • Trinidad 2
