DEVELOPMENT OF ARABIC LANGUAGE AND ISLAMIC VALUES EDUCATION (ALIVE)
 LESSON PLANS

To: Public Schools District Supervisors of Jagna and Ubay 1 Districts

1. The Arabic Language and Islamic Values Education (ALIVE) Program plays a vital role in providing learners with a strong foundation in both the Arabic language and Islamic teachings. To ensure the effectiveness of instruction, it is essential to develop lesson plans that are structured, contextually relevant, and aligned with both national education standards and Islamic principles.
2. In line with this, the Development of Arabic Language and Islamic Values Education (ALIVE) Lesson Plans will be conducted on September 30 (pm) and October 1, 2025.
3. The objectives of this activity are to:
  - Provide participants with a clear understanding of the ALIVE curriculum framework and its key components;
  - Develop effective lesson plans that integrate Arabic language skills with Islamic values;
  - Enable teachers to create engaging, contextually relevant, and culturally sensitive lesson plans;
  - Align lesson plans with national educational standards and Islamic principles while focusing on student-centered learning.
