1. The English Access Scholarship Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U. S. Government and administered by FHI 360.
2. The program will target Grade 9 secondary students from the select public high schools in Palawan and Bohol, focusing on those with academic promise but limited English proficiency. By prioritizing students who show potential but lack access to quality English training, the program will help bridge the gaps in opportunity and empower participants to succeed particularly in tourism, business and digital careers.
3. For Bohol, the public high school students (50 slots) from Panglao, Baclayon and Albur are the priority of this program. School Principals are tasked to recommend and submit the names of deserving students and prospective teachers (3) who will handle the subjects and chaperons (2) for an interview c/o Pablito D. Villalon, Education Program Supervisor in English and Dr. Martina Aguilar, the PSDS of Panglao and at the same time serves as Program Coordinator.
4. For the details, please refer them to the Program Coordinator.
5. For immediate action to all concerned.
