RE: Campus Ministry – Student Catholic Action of the Philippines
SCA Leaders' Summit

Dear Dr. Luarez,

Greetings filled with God's Love!

As the new school year begins, the Campus Ministry – Student Catholic Action of the Philippines (CM-SCAP) Talibon renews its commitment to evangelization. Inspired by our mission to form students who are both evangelized and evangelizing, we see this academic year as a vital opportunity to strengthen the faith and discipleship of young people throughout the Diocese.

In this spirit, we humbly seek your blessing, support, and approval for the proposed activities for School Year 2026–2027. These initiatives are intended to help our students grow in faith, community, and service. (Please see the attached document for the detailed activity proposals.)

We respectfully request your permission and pastoral guidance as we carry out these plans. All activities will be conducted on weekends, on a voluntary basis, and with full parental consent. We remain firmly committed to prioritizing the safety and well-being of all participants.

Your continued encouragement and support are vital to nurturing the spiritual growth of our Diocese's youth. United in Christ, we remain steadfast in our mission to share His love, especially in these challenging times. We prayerfully look forward to your positive response and pastoral approval

In Christ,

EUGENE F. PREMADIO
